

PRODUCT FLOW CHART

A product flow chart depicts the process and equipment used to process a particular product. A flow chart should be included with the certification application. Make notes on the chart where ingredients are added, where pest control measures are placed, or where quality assurance tests are done. (This is just a template. Customize your flow chart for your specific business.)

